PREFACE

Updated the book: 'Resisting Blunt Slavery' in Internet Archive and in The Allurement or Reality in Review Shop to the introduction of 'Samdhi Beckons': (https://archive.org/details/resisting-blunt-slavery-digital_20250317_0748)

How far will this state of mind take me and in what form will Samadhi manifest itself if at all? I need therefore to keep recording my thoughts and its relationship to circumstances without attachments.

Hi Shantanu,

Thank you for your response and I appreciate your willingness to cooperate. I understand that you need some time to go through your past correspondence.

In the meantime, could you please clarify whether you would like us to put this case on hold while you gather the necessary details, or if there is anything specific I can assist you with at this moment? Additionally, it would be helpful if you could provide more details about the exact nature of the issue so we can better understand how to support you and pass your case to the team that can assist you.

Looking forward to your response.

Comments:

Work that I end up doing as now is still 'karma in sanatan dharma automatically: it is therefore still got to be done to perfection; what it might result in is only to emerge with time: if it is the state of Samadhi or not: time will tell. This would be the Samadhi of Vishista Advaita Vedanta, not to be confused with any other definitions of the word 'Samadhi' whether Hindu or Buddhist.

That's a thoughtful perspective! Traveling really does expose us to the unpredictability of nature and life itself. Every journey can teach us something new, whether it's about the environment, different cultures, or even ourselves. Embracing that uncertainty often leads to the most memorable experiences. What have you learned from your travels?

It is very mysterious to unravel, for one cannot scientifically prove His existence; notwithstanding the news in recent weeks that a person has revealed to him mathematically that a God designed the universe.

With our yoga, what I learnt is that we start with Faith like fishing in the dark, then Faith is abandoned because of the idea that one must be liberated, and that includes liberation from all things including Personal God, which sets us on the travel journey to test the hypothesis through experience of whether one has been protected by a supernatural power as you mentioned. God does not want any human being to be 'attached' to Him.(Edited)

Shantanu, these Government plans will plunge more disabled people into poverty, unless we stop them.

Imagine you're living with a disability, need essential mobility aids and medication to get by and are already struggling with sky-high costs - well it's about to get harder. The Government wants to make huge cuts to our welfare system - and experts are warning they'll force more people with disabilities into poverty. [1]

Charities and 80 of Labour's own MPs are against this, saying the changes will be "catastrophic", "cruel" and "harmful" to many people who are already living with debilitating, exhausting conditions - and we're with them. [2] It's why more than 51,000 of us have signed a petition against the plans in just a few days. [3]

And the pressure could be working - recent reports say the Government might be close to a U-turn. [4] We need to keep the pressure up - and force them to back down now. So from today for every 1,000 new signatures on the petition we'll send an email to Keir Starmer and Work and Pensions Secretary Liz Kendall, letting them know how unpopular this change would be.

So Shantanu, will you join us in saying NO to cruel benefit cuts? It only takes seconds to demand the Government do the right thing:

I'LL SIGN

I'm not signing because...

Our welfare system is supposed to be a safety net for all of us in case the worst happens. Imagine you had an accident that left you struggling with high costs and then the Government slashed your support. We can't let the Government target the most vulnerable like this, Shantanu.

This isn't the first time we've taken on the Government and won: nearly 200,000 of us signed a petition to get Universal Credit increased in line with inflation, took our campaign to Downing Street, splashed it across the media - and we won. If we act fast, we can win again now, and stop these cruel cuts, but it's going to take all of us. [5]

I'LL SIGN

I'm not signing because...

Thanks for your support,

Flo, Olivia, Veronica and the 38 Degrees team

Complainant privacy notice

This privacy notice summarises what to expect us to do with your personal information when contact us or bring a complaint to our service. A more detailed version of this privacy notice is available on our website.

About us

The Financial Ombudsman Service is a free and easy-to-use service that settles complaints between complainants and businesses that provide financial services. You can contact us here. We use your personal information to investigate and resolve individual complaints and prevent unfairness. We also analyse complaints data to make our services and processes more effective for you and others. More detail is set out in the 'Why we process your personal information' section.

The personal information we use

Personal information means information that is about an individual or can identify them in some way. The amount and type of personal information we process varies depending on the individual circumstances of the complaint and why we are processing personal information. Examples of the type of information we process are your name, date of birth, financial details, phone recordings and special category data, such as health information.

How we collect personal data We have a range of channels that individuals can use to get in contact with us. Generally, we receive personal information from the individual directly, their representative or from the financial business the complaint is against. But sometimes, where it is necessary for resolving a complaint or fulfilling our legal functions, we may also gather information from other individuals or organisations, such as a loss adjuster hired by an insurance company, a medical expert or a credit reference agency.

Why we process personal information

We primarily collect and process personal information to investigate and resolve individual complaints brought to our service and respond to enquiries and redirect individuals to the correct organisation if necessary. In addition to this we also process personal data in the following way:

- Prevent complaints and unfairness
- Improve the effectiveness of our service and processes
- Meeting your needs and making adjustments
- Work with the regulator and other bodies
- Dealing with contact you may make with us through social media
- Complying with a legal duty.

We have a legal obligation to publish final decisions made by our ombudsmen. These are published on our website. We remove the name of the person making the complaint as well as any other personal information that would be likely to identify them.

We conduct regular surveys to understand your views on the service we have provided to you. You can let your Investigator know at any time if you do not want us to contact you for our surveys.

Who we share personal information with?

We will not share your information with anyone for the purpose of direct marketing. We will not sell your data.

When an enquiry is brought to us, we need to contact the financial business and make them aware that an enquiry has been received and ask them what has happened so far. The personal details of Financial Ombudsman Service – Complaint form 8 the complainant, any representative and details of the complaint are shared during this initial process.

In order to investigate a complaint, we need to share information with both parties of the complaint to get both sides of the story. Sometimes, depending on the nature of the complaint, we may also need to share relevant information with other individuals or organisations, for example: another financial business, medical experts or credit reference agencies.

If you have a complaint about the standard of service we've provided to you, and we've not been able to resolve this, you can ask the Independent Assessor to investigate this complaint. We will pass on relevant details to the Independent Assessor so that they can investigate and respond to your service complaint.

Lawful bases for processing personal information

The law on data protection sets out a number of different reasons for which an organisation may collect and process your personal information.

Our lawful basis for processing personal information will usually be because it's necessary for our statutory function, a reason of substantial public interest or compliance with our legal obligations.

On those occasions where we are not relying on any of the above, we will ensure that a suitable alternative lawful basis is used, which is likely to be where the processing is in our legitimate interests.

Where your data is processed and stored

We store your personal information in the UK or the European Union (EU). Our technical support teams in India may process your information to provide technical advice and assistance.

Where we allow access to your information from countries outside the UK, we ensure that we comply with all our data protection obligations.

How we store personal information and for how long We know that data security is important to us all. When we receive personal information, we take steps to ensure that it is stored securely, both physically and electronically, in accordance with the internal policies that we have in place for the effective and secure processing of your personal information. We will keep your case file for 6 years after your case closes (or 3 years if we did not go on to fully investigate your case or if we transferred your case to another organisation). Paper documents sent by post are destroyed 6 months after the date they are scanned into our system.

More information is in Annex A here.

What are your rights over your personal information?

Under data protection law, you have rights we need to make you aware of. The rights available to you depend on our reason for processing your information. Details of each of these rights are set out in Annex B here.

What to do if you're unhappy with how we've handled your personal information

If you have any questions about this notice or are concerned about how we are processing your personal data, you can contact our Data Protection Officer at: data.protection@financial-ombudsman.org.uk. Details of how to raise a complaint are available here.

We hope we'll be able to resolve your concerns, but if you still remain unhappy with our response, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at casework@ico.org.uk or 01625 545 745.

Changes to this privacy notice

We may change this privacy policy. In that case, the 'last updated' date at the bottom of this page will also change. Any changes to this privacy policy will apply to you and your data immediately.

Thanks for getting in touch. We've set up a case for you – the reference number is PNX-5522068-Q0Y5. Please use this number whenever you contact us.

We'd like to look into what's happened and see what we can do to help. We just need some details from you first.

What we need

We need you to complete and sign the attached complaint form – and send it back to us. Please also send us a copy of the final response you received from the business you're complaining about or evidence you've complained. – and anything else you think is important to your complaint.

There's no need to send us any original documents.

If you'd like to talk through this, please give us a call on 0800 023 4567.

You can return the complaint form and any other documents to us by email at complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk, or by post.

Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies.

We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Thanks,

Not sure if I am ready for Samadhi that is the total cessation of yoga into a haphazard life. Here I have collated some information that I am purposefully not responding to; after publishing the eBook Samadhi beckons deliberately to prevent an attack on me that I would not be able to defend. Now the State has to consider the contents of today's developments before issuing proceedings. For I know that there are outstanding legal process(es) that have yet to materialise. Even if the State insists that I am mentally ill and have been so for 26 years there has to be a process whereby this is legally determined, given my litigation Claims of E35YM660 and J00ME572.

I will do my best in the limited space here: The Conservative Libertarians (UK) is permitted by virtue of the fact that both these Membership Accounts are validated as things stand this moment in time for these are funded by the Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited and the Membership accounts are held at JOIN IT and Brilliant Directories: this means that the Company can proceed with a business as usual modus operandi, in the absence of an adjudication from the Court authorities specifically who were approached by the Director at Medway County Court (Claim J00ME572) and Central London County Court (Claim E35YM660). The technical details of what the institution of Conservative Libertarians stand for are as follows: There are so many things wrong with the deeply polarised world in terms of the values that governments enunciate with their policies, and over the past 55 years I have made a study of this with particular reference to the United Kingdom where I lived, extending it to other countries with diverse ecological and religious attributes. There has been no one putting forward a commonsense unified view of how humanity could be brought together with a shared outlook. No one has been knowledgeable enough to do that. Knowledge acquisition is a yogic endeavour that takes the whole of one's life to get to the Reality of our existence on this planet. Today I am seeking to find like-minded people not just in the United Kingdom but also globally who share my vision and would like to get together in an attempt to bring truth, justice and democracy into the Constitutions of their countries.

(a) Our political party in the United Kingdom, named 'Conservative Libertarians (UK)' is located online at: <https://app.joinit.com/o/conservative-libertarians/> and this website is available for citizens and residents of the United Kingdom. We carry out this mission entirely lawfully within the Constitution of the United Kingdom that we have already tested for all our activities before embarking on this mission of proactive actions knowing that we will not violate the law which is of fundamental importance for peaceful living. It will be up to Conservative Libertarians around the world to determine the laws of their own countries in terms of their existing Constitutions so that they can also undertake their own missions of prosperity, peace and security.

In the United Kingdom at present we need 15 members to act as officials for our Party to enable us to complete our registration with the Electoral Commission of the United Kingdom as Conservative Libertarians (UK). If you are able and willing to assist us, please contact me.

(b) For those people of other countries who share the philosophy of Conservative Libertarians you may like to list yourselves in the Directory for Conservative Libertarians (Global) that is established online at <https://knowledgefoundersunited.com/>.

That's a thoughtful perspective! Traveling really does expose us to the unpredictability of nature and life itself. Every journey can teach us something new, whether it's about the environment,

It is very mysterious to unravel, for one cannot scientifically prove His existence; notwithstanding the news in recent weeks that a person has revealed to him mathematically that a God designed the universe.

Yeah it is not easy. it takes Faith to realise there is a supernatural being in control of everything, nothing happens by mistake

With our yoga, what I learnt is that we start with Faith like fishing in the dark, then Faith is abandoned because of the idea that one must be liberated, and that includes liberation from all things including Personal God, which sets us on the travel journey to test the hypothesis through experience of whether one has been protected by a supernatural power as you mentioned. God does not want any human being to be 'attached' to Him.(Edited)

When does a philosophy become a religion: that is a question that I have grappled with for years as a scientist by first degree and post graduate studies with the publication of 35 papers in refereed journals. The answer is if it works for you accept it as gospel truth; until something new dawns upon the mind to replace existing beliefs.

Hi Shantanu,

Thank you for reaching back to us.

For context, shanpanigrahi3000@gmail.com account exists but has limited information which doesn't provide any useful information. For email addresses under shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com and shantanupanigrah@aol.com since mentioned that these are the once operating. Kindly clarify on how do we proceed.

If you have further questions please let us know. We'll be attentive to your response.

Best,

Dear Stripe

I have noted that both my Membership Accounts held under email addresses shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com at Stripe Bank for the JOIN IT Facility and shantanupanigrahi:aol.com for Brilliant Directories are currently validated and I operate these to account from the stated email addresses.

This leaves the question of why the shanpanigrahi3000@gmail.account held in Stripe now exists at all. The history is one of confusion that has not been clarified as linked here: <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/re-the-original-offending-stripe-account-at-join-it>. As to whether it requires us to undelete the account associated with the email address you've used to reach us out, sh[redacted]00@gm[redacted]il.com which is linked to "The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited" (acct_1P[redacted]06)? I would say No in case it is required for Court purposes, we should only correspond through the shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com and shantanupanigrah@aol.com.

I hope this information helps Stripe's assessment, but if I need to provide further clarification of my needs going forward, please let me know.

Yours sincerely

Hi Shantanu,
Thanks for circling back.

Can you please clarify if you're writing about the Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited (acct_1Q[redacted]bu)" and "The Conservative Libertarian Society (acct_1J[redacted]ni), or want to request to delete the account associated with the email address you've used to reach us out, sh[redacted]00@gm[redacted]il.com which is linked to The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited" (acct_1P[redacted]06)?

Getting a straightforward answer to this question will really help us out with identifying the next best steps to take from here.

I'll be looking forward to your response. Should you have any other questions or clarifications, please don't hesitate to email me back and I'm happy to jump back in to help.
